500 Pearl Street, Courtroom 12B
New York, NY 10007

ADJOURNED UNTIL FRIDAY,

THE PROBATION DEPARTMENT
SHALL MAKE FINAL DISCLOSURE
OF THE PRESENTENCE REPORT
BY MARCH 3, 2020.

Re: United States v. Asim Hameedi, et al., 17-cr-137 (JGK)

Dear Judge Koeltl:

Defendant Desiree Scott is currently scheduled to be sentenced on February 7, 2019. The sentencings of her codefendants Asim, Fawad, and Arif Hameedi are scheduled to take place on January 14, 2020. As the Court is aware, there are disputed issues surrounding the loss amounts attributable to her codefendants, which may affect the calculation of Ms. Scott's loss amount as well. (See Dkt. 320-21, 324). Accordingly, and in light of Ms. Scott's interest in being sentenced after her codefendants, the parties respectfully request that Ms. Scott's sentencing be adjourned until a date after March 2, 2020. The parties further request that the disclosure date for the U.S. Probation Office's final Presentence Investigation Report be adjourned until approximately 30 days before sentencing so that Probation may take into account information about Ms. Scott's co-defendants' sentencings.

Finally, defense counsel respectfully requests that the Court not schedule the sentencing between March 16 and 27 due to counsel's travel plans.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/
